

Women's Participation Travel Awards

Application Guidelines

Background

The World Aquaculture Society – Asian Pacific Chapter (WAS-APC) offers Women's Participation Travel Awards to support women in aquaculture to attend WAS-APC Annual event in the Asia Pacific region.

Award Details

Two (2) awards of USD 600 each.

Eligibility

Applicants must identify as women working in the aquaculture sector and demonstrate capacity to contribute and participate in WAS-APC Annual event in the Asia Pacific region.

Application Requirements

- Completed application form as below:
- Responses to four application questions
- Curriculum Vitae with photo (maximum two pages)

Selection Criteria

Assessment will consider knowledge of women's roles in aquaculture, experience, sectoral impact, and representation skills.

Submission

Applications must be submitted via the WAS-APC chapter secretariate by the published deadline.

Enquiries

Please contact the WAS-APC Secretariat at apcsec@was.org for further information.

Women's Participation Travel Awards – Application Form

Applicant Information

Full Name:
Organization / Institution:
Position / Role:
Country:
Email Address:
Submit date:

Application Questions

Please respond concisely to the questions below. Word limits apply. Responses will be assessed based on relevance, clarity, demonstrated impact, and alignment with the selection criteria.

1. Understanding of Women's Role in Aquaculture (Max. 250 words)

Describe your understanding of the role of women in the aquaculture industry.

2. Experience and Contribution (Max. 250 words)

Outline your experience and contributions to the development of the aquaculture industry.

3. Benefits of Attending the WAS-APC event (Max. 200 words)

Explain how attending WAS-APC event (based on the event you apply) would benefit you, other women, and the aquaculture sector.

4. Representation and Engagement (Max. 200 words)

Describe the skills and experience that would enable you to represent WAS-APC effectively.

Supporting Documents

- Curriculum Vitae (maximum 2 pages)

Declaration

I confirm that the information provided is accurate and that I am able to attend WAS-APC event if selected.

Applicant Signature:	Date:
----------------------	-------