

QASH

(Quantitative Atlantic
Salmon Health Assessment)

Get involved in creating a global health tool for salmon!

QASH 3

GOAL: Health is Wealth

Time and date: 10:30 – 17:00 August 27, 2024
Place: Bella Center Copenhagen, Denmark

Session 1: State of the art – key players

- 10:30 – 10:40 Introduction to QASH
Aquaculture is not agriculture under water
QASH Team
- 10:40 – 10:55 From lab to global scale
Dave Cockerill - Bakkafrost
- 11:00 – 11:15 The importance of feed for fish health
Jesper Clausen – Aller Aqua DK
- 11:20 – 11:35 Genetic development and health
TO BE CONFIRMED

Session 2: Where health is wealth

- 11:40 – 11:55 Science – industry working together
Oskar Nyberg – SeaBOS Science team Stockholm Resilience
Center
- 12:00 – 12:15 Aquaculture health economy
Bård Misund – University of Stavanger

12:20 – 12:35 Risk management and insurance
Arild Stormer – AXA XL

12:35 – 14:00 LUNCH

Session 3: Practical solutions for industrial bottlenecks

14:00 – 14:15 SEAS (Shaping European Research Leaders for Marine Sustainability)
Virginie Comorge – University of Bergen

14:20 – 14:35 Collecting and activating industry data
Kristian Blom – AquaCloud

14:40 – 14:55 Environmental management of RAS
TO BE CONFIRMED

15:00 – 15:15 Certifying fish and taking the place of (missing) public management bodies
Morten Berntsen – Global GAP/ASC

15:15 – 15:30 PAUSE

15:30 – 15:45 Global health in fish
Meritxell Díez-Padrís – Patogen

15:50 – 16:05 Blood and Barrier health
Karin Pittman – Quantidoc, Mark Braceland – WellFish

16:10 – 16:25 A framework for holistic decision making
Bjorgolfur Havardsson – NCE Seafood

16:30 – 17:00 Summary and discussion
How do available health and welfare tools fit into certification?
QASH team

